Hyderabad

The second day of the Global Spirituality Mahotsav, being organised by the Ministry of Culture in collaboration with Heartfulness, saw a galaxy of spiritual teachers and leaders sharing the platform and setting the tone for the event.

Being held at Kanha Shanti Vanam, the four-day spirituality festival witnessed the participation of President Droupadi Murmu. Earlier in the day, a series of sessions were held with prominent speakers, including Ranjana Chopra, Additional Secretary and Financial Adviser, Ministry of Culture, Rt. Hon Patricia Scotland, Commonwealth Secretary General, Gaur Gopal Das, ISKCON.

"The world has witnessed faith and religion dividing people, but we should not blame faith. Problems arise with faithful ones, not faith. Only when we are rejoined with each other, we can reunite with God," said Kamlesh D Patel ji (Daaji), Global Guide of Heartfulness.

"People might go to the mountains to experience peace, but while living in our place and living a life full of challenges, we need to be peaceful where we are," said Sister Usha Kuman Behnji, Brahmakumaris. The event will see 300 spiritual organisations and over 75,000 participants coming together with the common goal of manifesting 'global harmony through individual peace'. Nearly a million people from all over the world will be joining the summit online.
