

Bharat Summit to showcase to world Telangana as a model State

Over 450 delegates representing different fields from 100 countries to attend the two-day event; AICC president Mallikharjun Kharge, Congress senior leaders Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi are among the speakers

M. Rajeev
HYDERABAD

The stage is all set for the commencement of the Bharat Summit, a unique initiative of the Congress government to showcase Telangana as a model State with progressive thinking to the global audience, on Friday.

The two-day event will feature participation of over 450 delegates representing different fields from 100 countries across the world. Heads of governments, members of Parliaments, representatives of political parties, chiefs of major corporates and those reputed as think-tanks in different domains will participate in the event.

There will be panel discussions on important issues like Gender Justice & A Feminist Future, Fact vs fiction, Countering Disinformation, Youth & Politics of Tomorrow and Shaping

Deputy Chief Minister Mallu Bhatti Vikramarka, AICC leaders, including Gurdeep Sappal along with others overseeing the arrangements for Bharat Summit 2025 at the HICC Novotel in Hyderabad on Thursday. NAGARA GOPAL

New Multilateralism on the first day. This will be followed by debates on key subjects like Overcoming Polarization with Pluralism, Diversity & Respect Accelerating Climate Justice, Economic Justice in Uncertain Times and Peace & justice in a multipolar world on the second day.

AICC president Mallikharjun Kharge, Congress senior leaders Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi are among the speakers during the plenary and valedictory sessions in addition to experts in the respective fields from different countries. The summit will focus on non-violence, truth, justice and democracy, the main principles on which the Congress party has been founded, according to Deputy Chief Minister Mallu Bhatti Vikramarka.

Mr. Bhatti Vikramarka inspected the arrangements that have been made for the prestigious event on Thursday. He recalled how the country had adopted non-alignment as its stand during the Cold War era and said it was decided to hold the international conference inspired by the thinking of Mr. Rahul Gandhi.

Steps have been taken to allot special slot for explaining about Telangana's development, resources and the spree of welfare initiatives of the Congress government so as to ensure that the summit would help in showcasing the State at the global level.